ACCESSION TO INBOUND COMPETITIVE MULTI-SERVICE PRIME AGREEMENT
(January 12, 2022)

In Order No. 5544,¹ the Postal Regulatory Commission (Commission or PRC) established Docket No. CP2020-169 to consider the United States Postal Service's (Postal Service) notice filed on June 11, 2020 (Notice) in this matter.² The Postal Service attached the "PRIME United States Postal Service Tracked Service Agreement" (referred to as the "PRIME Agreement") to its Notice.³ Annex 4 of the PRIME Agreement consists of Deeds of Accession signed by certain foreign postal operators (FPOs).⁴ The Postal Service also stated in its Notice that it would update this docket should additional FPOs accede to the PRIME Agreement and expected additional FPOs to accede beyond the intended (and since favorably reviewed) effective date of July 1, 2020.⁵

⁵ Notice, at 5; PRC Order No. 5563, Order Approving Additional Inbound Competitive Multi-Service Agreement with Foreign Postal Operators, Docket No. CP2020-169, June 25, 2020, at 8.

At this time, the Postal Service provides notice to the Commission that one additional FPO has acceded to the PRIME Agreement. The Postal Service attaches to this notice as Attachment 1 the Deed of Accession executed by this FPO. The FPO executed this Deed of Accession on December 31, 2021. Unless the Commission determines otherwise, the Postal Service proposes that the effective date of this accession be February 1, 2022.

The Postal Service maintains that the identity of the counterparty-FPO to the PRIME Agreement in Attachment 1 should remain confidential and incorporates by reference the Application for Non-Public Treatment filed with its Notice in this docket.⁶ The redacted copy of this attachment is filed publicly, while the unredacted version is filed under seal for the Commission's review.
